

First meeting of platform for Police Complaint
Authorities in Delhi on 17th – 18th November, 2012.

On 17-11-2012 the first meeting of platform was held in New Delhi organized by CHRI. All the Chairpersons of the Police Accountability Commission/Authorities of the States where such Commission/Authority exist and the members from Kerala and some other States attended. The object of the conference was to formalize the platform for Police Complaint Authorities and evolve a practice for meeting at regular interval of the Presidents and members of the police complaint authorities of different States. After fruitful deliberation and exchange of views about functioning of the PACs in the States it has been decided that meeting should be organized by State PCAs in the respective States. PACs of Chandigarh, Dadra, Tripura offered to host the events. It has been further decided that CHRI shall provide Secretarial service till alternative arrangements are made. Ms Maja Daruwala, CHRI Chaired.

The fact that the Tripura Police Accountability Commission has put in place their own web site www.tpac.nic.in, published annual report and organized seminar-cum-work shops in different places was appreciated in the meeting.
